MOUNTAINEER TO WATCH

Cole Austin • Sophomore • Third Baseman • Kennesaw, Georgia

Cole Austin led the team with a .571 batting average and extended his hitting streak to a career-best 10 games last weekend at No. 10 Baylor. He went 3-for-5 on Friday night and 4 for 5 while driving in the game-winning run in the ninth inning on Saturday afternoon. His three hits on Friday tied a season high, while he eclipsed it the following day with a career-high-tying four hits.

Austin's .571 average was third-best in the Big 12 last week, while his eight hits tied for second in the league. Austin's 10-game hitting streak is the second-longest on the team this season.

BY THE NUMBERS

8 West Virginia enters the weekend with the No. 8 RPI in the country, which ranks third in the Big 12. Three conference teams are ranked in the top eight, four in the top 26 and six in the top 54.

Six of the nine Big 12 teams are ranked or receiving votes in the NCBWA poll. That includes WVU, which is receiving votes. TCU and Texas Tech are both ranked in the top five, at No. 3 and 4, respectively. The Big 12 is the only league with two top-five teams and one of two with four in the top 15.

4-1 West Virginia improved to 4-1 against top-25 teams this season after a series win at No. 10 Baylor. WVU also owns two wins at No. 18 Coastal Carolina. The four wins already ties last year's mark for wins against to-25 opponents.

Mountaineers Ready for Home-Opening Weekend

After opening the season with 18 games on the road, the West Virginia University baseball team makes its 2017 Monongalia County Ballpark debut this weekend with a series against Jacksonville.

The home opener is set for Friday, March 24, at 6:30 p.m. ET, while Saturday's first pitch is at 3 p.m. Sunday's finale has been moved up to noon, to accommodate a change in Jacksonville's travel schedule.

The Mountaineers (10-8, 2-1 Big 12 Conference) are coming off a weekend-series win at No. 10 Baylor to open Big 12 play. WVU improved to 4-1 against top-25 teams with 7-1 and 6-5 wins to open the series before BU prevailed in the finale, 5-1. WVU's midweek contest at Penn State was postponed, due to forecasted temperatures expected in the State College, Pennsylvania, area.

The Dolphins (11-12) come to Morgantown following a 10-9 loss at No. 11 Florida State on Tuesday night. JU had won four of five before dropping a weekend series to UCF, 2-1 last weekend. Jacksonville is 2-4 on the road and 1-2 against top-25 teams.

Three right-handers will start for West Virginia this weekend in the first-ever matchup between WVU and JU. In the opener, junior BJ Myers (2-1) will take the mound against junior righty Michael Baumann (1-2). Saturday, sophomore Michael Grove (1-1) will face sophomore right-hander Chris Gau (2-2). In Sunday's finale, junior Conner Dotson (3-2) gets the ball against senior lefty Casey Lulina (1-0).

The 2017 promotional schedule begins on Saturday with Bingo. All fans are encouraged to pick up bingo cards at the marketing table outside the guest services window at Monongalia County Ballpark. Prizes will be available for some of the first fans who get bingo on Saturday.

Tickets

Tickets are available for all three games this weekend against Jacksonville. Fans can join the excitement of WVU baseball and contribute to the home field advantage at Monongalia County Ballpark by calling 1-800-WVU GAME, purchasing tickets at WVUGAME.com or at the Mountaineer Ticket Office at Gate A of Monongalia County Ballpark on gameday or in advance at the Gold Gate at the WVU Coliseum.

Following Along

All three games will be streamed online at WVUsports.com, and fans can listen to the games on the Mountaineer Sports Network from IMG on various affiliates throughout the state, online at WVUsports.com, on the Mountaineer Gameday App and the TuneInRadio App. Dan Zangrilli and Ernie Galusky will call the action.

Links to the live streams, radio broadcast and live stats for all three games can be found on the baseball schedule page at WVUsports.com.

Additional behind-the-scenes updates, news and notes from Monongalia County Ballpark can be found on social media by following and connecting with the team at @WVUBaseball on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram.

Quick Hits: Key Team Notes

- West Virginia is celebrating its 125th year of baseball. Founded in 1892, WVU owns an all-time record of 2,105-1,510-19. The Mountaineers are the second-oldest program in the Big 12.
- West Virginia played its first 18 games away from home, after the home opener, on Tuesday, March 14, was postponed due to snow.
- Cole Austin has hit safely in a career-best 10 games, the second-longest hitting streak by a Mountaineer this season. After leading the team with a .571 average and eight hits in WVU's series win at Baylor, Austin was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week, on March 20.
- Darius Hill had a career-best and team-leading 13-game hitting streak, which ended on March 8 at Southeastern Louisiana. He had at least one hit in each of WVU's first 11 games, with four multi-hit games and four multi-RBI contests. Hill is tied for second on the team with 17 hits and third with 11 RBIs.
- WVU's 6-2 start to the year followed a 5-1 start in 2016, the first time since 2006-07 the Mountaineers have started back-to-back seasons with at least five wins in their first seven games. Just like a six-game winning streak in 2017, WVU's start to 2016 included a five-game winning streak.
- West Virginia went 2-0 against No. 18 Coastal Carolina on Feb. 25 and 27, its first games against a ranked foe in 2017 and its first-ever games against a defending national champion.
- In West Virginia 22-9 win at No. 18 Coastal Carolina on Feb. 25, WVU's 22 runs were the most since it scored 23 against Duquesne in 2010. WVU's 29 hits was three shy of the school record of 32, set in 2009, and the Mountaineers' six home runs was one shy of the school record of seven, set in 1997. WVU's 56 at-bats is a new school record. Jackson Cramer had a career-best five hits, four extra-base hits and three doubles, all one shy of tying the school record, and he added a career-high six RBIs.
- Every starter in the lineup has had at least one hit twice in WVU's first seven games, while every starter recorded an RBI once in the stretch.
- Sophomore catcher Ivan Gonzalez has been named to the 2017 Johnny Bench Award Watch List. The annual award is given annually to the top Division I collegiate catcher.
- Coach Randy Mazey is 134-109 at West Virginia and became the fifth coach in team history to eclipse the 100-win mark and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons.
- West Virginia was voted to finish fifth in the 2017 Big 12 Conference baseball preseason coaches' poll, WVU's highest preseason ranking since joining the conference in 2013.
- WVU's 2017 schedule includes 15 games against teams that made the 2016 NCAA Tournament, including four of the eight teams that advanced to the College World Series. West Virginia plays two games at Coastal Carolina and hosts TCU, the preseason No. 1 team in the country.
- WVU won 36 games in 2016, the most wins in a single season in coach Randy Mazey's four years and the most since 2009 (37).
- WVU went 3-1 at the 2016 Big 12 Championship and advanced to its first Big 12 Championship game and first conference title game since 1996.
- Darius Hill and Ivan Gonzalez were named to Freshman All-America teams after leading WVU in several offensive categories as freshmen in 2016.
- WVU has had 14 draft selection in coach Randy Mazey's four seasons, the most draft picks in a four-year stretch in team history.
- Attendance has increased in each of WVU's first four seasons in the Big 12, highlighted by a program-record total of 40,390 fans in 2016, for an average of 1,346 fans per game. WVU averaged a record 1,507 fans in the inaugural season at Monongalia County Ballpark in 2015.

Scouting Jacksonville

Jacksonville enters the weekend with an 11-12 record. The Dolphins are 8-7 at home, 2-4 on the road and 1-1 at a neutral site. JU has posted a 1-2 record against top-25 teams.

- The Dolphins are coming off a 10-9 loss at Florida State on Tuesday night. JU scored seven first-inning runs, but the Seminoles came back, scoring at least one run in six of the first seven innings before walking off with three runs in the bottom of the ninth.
- Last weekend, Jacksonville lost a home series to UCF. In the opener at UCF, the home team posted a 4-0 win. The series then shifted to Jacksonville, where the Knights won the series with a 10-3 win on Saturday. JU claimed the finale with a 7-1 win on Sunday.
- Nathan Koslowski leads the offense with a .375 batting average, 36 hits, 17 RBIs, a .500 slugging percentage and 48 total bases. Scott Dubrulle is second with 22 hits and a .282 average.
- On the mound, Chris Gau has made five starts and posts a 2.70 ERA. Michael Baumann's 34 strikeouts leads the team, while Spencer Stockton has a team-best 3-1 record in 10 relief appearances.
- Chris Hayes is in his first season as head coach at Jacksonville after spending the last three years as JU's assistant coach.

On Deck: Backyard Brawl Resumes in Pittsburgh

The Backyard Brawl resumes with the 193rd edition of the rivalry against Pitt on Tuesday, March 28 at 6 p.m. ET, in Pittsburgh. WVU has won its last four road games in the series and owns a 104-88 all-time record against the Panthers.

Last Time Out: Series Win at No. 10 Baylor

West Virginia won the opening series of Big 12 Conference play at No. 10 Baylor from March 17-19, in Waco, Texas. WVU opened the series with a 7-1 win on Friday night thanks to 8.0 strong innings from junior BJ Myers. The Mountaineers secured the series victory with a 6-5, back-and-forth win on Saturday before Baylor avoided the sweep with a 5-1 win in Sunday's finale. WVU never trailed in the first two games of the series.

- In the 7-1 win on Friday, March 17, junior BJ Myers allowed just one run on five hits in a season-long 8.0 innings, as the offense scored a run in the first inning and took a 3-0 lead in the third and never trailed. Myers held Baylor hitless in four of the first five innings and allowed just five runners to reach second base all night. The WVU offense backed Myers up with 13 hits and seven walks, as runners reached base in every inning and all but one starter had at least one hit. Senior Jackson Cramer had two hits, two RBIs, two runs scored and two walks, while sophomore Cole Austin had a season-high-tying three hits and an RBI.
- The Mountaineers won the series with a back-and-forth, 6-5 win on Saturday, March 18. WVU had runners reach base in all but one inning and again never trailed. West Virginia took an early 3-0 lead, but Baylor chipped away until eventually tying the game at 5-5 in the seventh inning. WVU answered in the ninth inning though, thanks to a two-out RBI single by sophomore Cole Austin. With the bases loaded and a new pitcher in for the Bears, Austin's single to center, his career-high-tying fourth hit of the day, scored the go-ahead run to put the Mountaineers ahead for good, 6-5.
- WVU fell short of a series sweep with a 5-1 loss on Sunday, March 19. WVU scored one run on nine hits with no errors, while the Bears scored five runs on nine hits with one error. Sophomore Marques Inman had three hits, going 3-4 and sophomore Cole Austin had one hit, extending his hitting streak to a career-best 10 games. Following junior starter Conner Dotson's 4.1 innings, four freshman right-handers combined to throw 3.2 shutout innings, allowing just three hits with two strikeouts and no walks.

Celebrating 125 Years

- West Virginia celebrates its 125th year of baseball in 2017. Founded in 1892, WVU owns an all-time program record of 2,105-1,510-19.
- WVU is the second-oldest program in the Big 12 Conference, behind only Kansas, which began play in 1880. Along with WVU and KU, four other Big 12 teams were founded prior to 1900. Texas is the third-oldest team (1895), followed by TCU (1896), Kansas State (1897) and Oklahoma (1898). Texas Tech (1926) is the league's youngest team.
- WVU has had 19 coaches. Dale Ramsburg (1968-94) owns the record for most wins, with 534. A.R. Stahlings was the program's first coach, from 1894-96. Current coach Randy Mazey is fifth all-time in wins (134).
- A total of 14 Mountaineers have earned All-America honors. Ivan Gonzalez and Darius Hill are the most recent honorees, having both earned Freshman All-America accolades in 2016. Two more All-Americans are on the 2017 roster, in juniors Kyle Davis and BJ Myers, who were recognized on Freshman All-America teams in 2015.
- West Virginia has made 11 NCAA Tournaments, most recently in 1996.
- WVU been a member of six conferences and own a total of 19 conference championships. WVU was an independent from the program's founding in 1892 until 1950, when it joined the Southern Conference from 1951-1968. West Virginia was an independent again from 1969-1980. The Mountaineers were in the Eastern 8 from 1981-82 before becoming the Atlantic 10 in 1983. From 1996-2012 West Virginia was in the Big East. WVU joined the Big 12 in 2013.
- Twenty-three Mountaineers have played in Major League Baseball. The list includes current St. Louis Cardinals infielder Jedd Gyorko, a Morgantown native.
- Eighty-two Mountaineers have been selected in the MLB Draft. That includes 2016 draftees Chad Donato (11th round, Houston Astros) and Blake Smith (29th round, Los Angeles Angels).
- West Virginia did not field a team from 1943-45, due to World War II.

Sweeping the Defending Champs

West Virginia went 4-0 in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, at the Caravelle Resort Tournament from Feb. 24-27. The weekend was highlighted by a pair of wins at No. 18 Coastal Carolina, the defending national champions. Darius Hill led WVU with six hits, six RBIs, six runs scored and two home runs. He hit .429 with a .857 slugging percentage.

- Seven innings from BJ Myers and a five-run seventh propelled WVU to a 5-3 victory over George Mason on Feb. 24. In 7.0 innings, Myers allowed one run on four hits, just two for extra-bases, and struck out seven. After allowing a home run in the first, Myers retired 10 in a row. The bats broke through in the seventh, as a bases-loaded walk tied the game at 1-1. Cole Austin followed with a bases-clearing triple to the wall in right field to score three and give WVU a 4-1 lead.
- Playing a defending national champion for the first time in program history, West Virginia's bats broke out for 22 runs on 29 hits in a 22-9 victory at No. 18 Coastal Carolina the following day. WVU scored at least one run in all but two innings and batted around twice. The 22 runs are WVU's most since it scored 23 vs. Duquesne in 2010. The 29 hits is three shy of tying the school record of 32, set in 2009, and West Virginia's six home runs is one shy of the program record, set in 1997. Jackson Cramer led the offensive charge with a career-best five hits, four extra-base hits and three doubles, all one shy of tying the school record. He added a career-high six RBIs and hit one home run. Every WVU starter had at least two hits, while seven had at least three. All but one starter drove in at least one run and four had multiple RBIs.
- After getting no-hit for six innings, West Virginia rallied with two runs in the eighth and ninth to beat Ball State, 4-1, on Feb. 26. WVU and BSU were locked in a pitcher's duel, with just three total hits through seven innings, before Darius Hill homered with two outs in the eighth to give WVU a 2-1 lead. A pair of wild pitches in the ninth scored two insurance runs. WVU had four hits and gave up just two, both season-lows. Making his first career start, Carter Camp pitched 5.0 innings and allowed one first-inning run on two hits with seven strikeouts and no walks. Marques Inman broke up the no-hitter in the seventh inning.

- West Virginia closed the week with a 4-1 win at Coastal on Feb. 27. WVU took an early 2-0 lead in the first inning, and Cole Austin followed with a towering home run in the third and an RBI single scored the final run in the sixth. Conner Dotson earned the win with 6.0 strong innings with a career-best 10 strikeouts. The bullpen followed with three shutout innings, holding CCU to one hit.

WVU Fifth in Big 12 Preseason Poll

- West Virginia was voted to finish fifth in the 2017 Big 12 Conference baseball preseason coaches' poll.
- The preseason ranking is WVU's highest since joining the conference in 2013. The Mountaineers received 40 points, the most in their five years in the league.
- TCU was a unanimous selection to win the league with 64 points, while Oklahoma State was second with 54. Eight points separated the next three spots, as Texas Tech garnered 48 points to finish third, followed by Texas in fourth with 41 points and WVU in fifth, with 40.
- WVU also received one first place vote. Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team.

Mazey is WVU's Newest Mr. 100

Coach Randy Mazey won his 100th game at WVU in the Mountaineers' 11-6 victory at Kansas on March 26. On May 6, Mazey won his 300th career game as the Mountaineers beat Texas, 11-2.

- Mazey is the fifth coach in program history to eclipse the 100-win mark and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons.
- Mazey joins Ira Errett Rodgers (1921-42, 46), Steve Harrick (1948-67), Dale Ramsburgh (1968-94) and Greg Van Zant (1995-2012) with at least 100 wins at WVU.
- Along with Mazey, only Van Zant won his 100th game in his fourth season. Harrick won his 100 game in his eighth, and Rodgers and Ramsburg reached the milestone in their ninth seasons at WVU.
- In his career, Mazey owns a 321-269-2 record, eclipsing the 300-win mark on May 6, 2016. Mazey is 134-109 at WVU.

Record Attendance in 2016

A total of 40,390 fans filled Monongalia County Ballpark in 2016, the highest home attendance in team history. For 30 home games, WVU averaged 1,346 fans per game, the second-highest average in program history. In the inaugural season at Monongalia County Ballpark in 2015, WVU averaged 1,507 fans per game.

Freshmen All-American Duo

For the second consecutive season, a pair of Mountaineers earned Freshman All-America accolades when outfielder Darius Hill and catcher/third baseman Ivan Gonzalez were honored.

- Hill was named to five Freshman All-America teams: Baseball America Second Team, NCBWA Second Team, Louisville Slugger as selected by Collegiate Baseball newspaper, Perfect Game Second Team and D1Baseball.com Second Team.
- Gonzalez was honored by Baseball America.
- Hill's three honors marks the seventh time in team history a player has earned at least three All-America accolades in a single season and the second in as many years, joining Kyle Davis. Gonzalez becomes the 16th player in program history to earn at least one All-America honor and it is the 43rd honor overall for the program.
- Both were named to the Big 12 All-Freshman team, while Hill was selected to the All-Big 12 Second Team and Gonzalez to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team.

- Hill led the team with 75 hits, 20 doubles and four triples and was second on the team with a .342 batting average, a .511 slugging percentage, a .420 on-base percentage, 32 walks and 49 runs scored.
- Gonzalez led the team with a .381 average and a .437 on-base percentage. He was second with a .493 slugging percentage. Despite playing in 43 games with 37 starts, he was fifth on the team with 51 hits, sixth with 23 RBIs and nine doubles and seventh with 16 walks.
- Gonzalez and Hill join Kyle Davis and BJ Myers, who earned Freshman All-America accolades in 2015. It is the second time in program history that two Mountaineers earned All-America honors in back-to-back years.
- The first time it happened was in 2008-09, when Jedd Gyorko was recognized both seasons, and Tyler Kuhn was honored in 2008 and Vince Belnome in 2009.

Path to the Pros

Nineteen former Mountaineers played professional baseball in 2016, including five that played for WVU in 2016.

- Chad Donato and Blake Smith were selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Donato in the 11th round by the Houston Astros and Smith in the 29th round by the Los Angeles Angels
- Ross Vance and Ray Guerrini signed free-agent contracts with the St. Louis Cardinals and Seattle Mariners, respectively, and KC Huth played in the American Association for the Joplin Blasters.
- WVU has had 14 draft selection in coach Randy Mazey's four seasons, the most draft picks in a four-year stretch in team history. At least two West Virginia players have been drafted in each of Mazey's four seasons. With the two MLB draft picks in 2016, there have been 84 Mountaineer draft selections since the first draft was held in 1965.
- Last year's list of professional players was headlined by the St. Louis Cardinals' Jedd Gyorko. A Morgantown native, Gyorko was drafted by the San Diego Padres in the second round of the 2010 Draft and has played in the Major Leagues since 2013. Last season, Gyorko's first in St. Louis, he led the Cardinals with 30 home runs while posting a .243 batting average.

Schedule Breakdown

The 56-game schedule is highlighted by 23 home games and games against four of the eight teams that made the 2016 College World Series.

The slate features a pair of games at the 2016 national champions, Coastal Carolina, and Big 12 home series against TCU and Texas Tech, both coming off College World Series appearances. WVU also will travel to Oklahoma State, another College World Series program from a year ago, Tulane, which reached the Regional final, and Southeastern Louisiana, for a total of 16 games against 2016 NCAA Tournament teams.

The 23-game home schedule at Monongalia County Ballpark includes games against reigning Big 12 regular season champion Texas Tech (May 5-7) and Big 12 Tournament champion TCU (April 14-16), as well as Oklahoma (April 28-30), Kansas (April 7-9), Pitt (May 16), Marshall (April 4) and Penn State (May 9). All but four home games, and every Big 12 game, will be in April and May.

"I'm excited that we have some really good teams coming to Morgantown this season, including two that were in the College World Series last year," Mazey said. "Our fans played a big role in building a strong home field advantage at Monongalia County Ballpark last year, and I know they'll get to see some great baseball again this year."

Season Preview

By Charlie Healy

The West Virginia baseball team has something to prove in 2017.

Coming off their best season since joining the Big 12 Conference and in the Randy Mazey era, the Mountaineers came agonizingly close to making the NCAA Tournament in 2016 for the first time since 1996.

The Mountaineers went 36-22, reached their first-ever Big 12 championship game, and finished the year as one of the nation's hottest teams, winning 17 of their last 21. However, WVU was listed as one of the first four teams out when the NCAA Tournament field was announced.

The mindset of playing with an edge and proving doubters wrong began on May 30, 2016, after the 64-team NCAA Tournament field was revealed and just three Big 12 teams were invited. WVU, which finished fourth in the Big 12, as well as the league, felt slighted. Oklahoma State, TCU and Texas Tech proceeded to prove the conference's doubters wrong as all three teams advanced all the way to the College World Series.

Fast forward to 2017, and Mazey and the Mountaineers know they have what it takes to end WVU's NCAA Tournament drought. Now, it's on them to prove everyone outside of Morgantown wrong.

"We have something to prove," Mazey said. "We continue to feel like we're doing well, but I don't think anybody outside of WVU thinks we're good enough to play in the postseason. Every day we take the field, we're out to prove to the rest of the country that we belong.

"This group needs to play with an edge and play like they're mad, and they need to be because there was a whole group of people last year who told them they weren't good enough. It's a pretty good sign going into this year that they are out there trying to prove to a lot of people how good they are."

That begins with embracing the process of a 56-game season. From the start of practice in the fall, the mindset was to focus on the process – training and competing to be the best every day.

From eating right and training hard every day to getting enough sleep, the 35 players on the roster are embracing that process. It helps that seven of nine starting position players return, along with three starting pitchers who have had plenty of Big 12 success and a strong corps of relievers in the bullpen.

Bolstering that group is the highest-rated recruiting class in program history.

"We've got guys back from last year who have had some success, and we've added some guys to that," Mazey said. "We've got some pretty good depth in the lineup that we can interchange guys and rest other guys when we need to. I'm pretty excited about the offense that we're going to be able to put out there."

The question marks, and the reason the Mountaineers are ready to prove people wrong, are that the missing pieces from last year's team all made an impact. Of the six major departures from a year ago, two were drafted and two more signed free agent contracts with Major League Baseball organizations last summer. In total, five of the six Mountaineers who saw extended playing time last year who did not return in 2017 played professionally last summer.

What the national experts don't see though, is how West Virginia has responded to those losses. Particularly, Mazey likes the offensive makeup of the 2017 Mountaineers.

"We've got a great mix. I think we have four or five guys who can hit double-digit homers on this team. Of the guys that don't, we have guys who can play some small ball. Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and new center fielder Brandon White can really run, so that's a really neat mix. You look at Coastal Carolina last year, they won the national championship and that's what they did. A bunch of guys had a lot of homers, but they also were top 10 in the nation in sacrifice bunts too. I think we have that type of team offensively that we're going to be able to do that."

West Virginia hit .287 as a team last year, which ranked No. 3 in the Big 12 and was WVU's best average since joining the conference in 2013. Seven of nine starters and 11 position players return in 2017.

There aren't a lot of holes to fill in the starting lineup in the field. The newcomers add depth and bring plenty of success at the high school level.

"I like their energy and ability to help in spots where we needed help," Mazey said of the new faces on the roster. "We have a lot of guys back from last year, so we didn't need anyone to come in and just take over anywhere. The freshmen are going to get their chances."

Just like with the bats and in the field, there is a mix of experience and fresh faces on the mound. West Virginia has 10 pitchers returning from a staff that ranked third in the Big 12 with a 4.07 ERA.

Despite losing ERA leader Chad Donato, saves leader Blake Smith and wins leader Ross Vance, who all signed with MLB clubs last summer, the pieces are there to fill those holes. That includes starters Conner Dotson, Michael Grove and BJ Myers, all of whom have had success in the Big 12.

West Virginia is gaining respect within the league. The Big 12's coaches voted WVU fifth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Mountaineers' best-ever preseason ranking, and the 40 points in the poll were also a program best.

From the wealth of returning position players to a strong corps of returning pitchers and a much-heralded recruiting class, there is plenty of reason for optimism at Monongalia County Ballpark.

It's a group that wants to be that first team from West Virginia to make the NCAA Tournament since 1996. Now, all they have to do is go out there and do it.

As the season begins on Friday, here's a position-by-position look at the 2017 Mountaineers:

PITCHING

The Mountaineer pitching staff will be led by returning starters Conner Dotson, Michael Grove and BJ Myers, who combined for 21 starts a season ago.

The trio has seen plenty of success in the Big 12 and all played crucial roles in WVU's strong finish to the 2016 season.

Dotson, a junior, pitched in 20 games with four starts and tied for the team lead with seven wins. He was 3-0 as a starter, including a dominant postseason performance in a win over Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship to send WVU to its first ever Big 12 title game. Dotson was named to the Big 12 All-Tournament Team.

Also a junior, Myers made 17 appearances with 10 starts in 2016 after earning Freshman All-America honors in 2015. Myers won five games as a sophomore and pitched 4.2 strong innings in relief at the Big 12 Championship in WVU's win over No. 5 Texas Tech.

Grove, a sophomore, made a big impact as a freshman, earning All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honors. A Wheeling, West Virginia, native, he made seven starts, posting a 2.70 ERA.

"BJ, Michael and Conner are three veteran guys who have been here," Mazey said. "I call Grove a veteran just because he pitched so much down the stretch. Those guys could be as good as anybody out there, I feel pretty good about that. Early on, when pitch counts aren't as high, you have to use a lot more people but when those guys settle in and start doing their thing, I feel really good about flipping them the ball."

After Dotson, Grove and Myers, there are plenty of options. Eight returning arms, and as many as nine newcomers, will be in the bullpen. Two key pieces, a fourth starter and a closer, have to be development.

Among the returners, those options could be senior Jackson Sigman, junior Shane Ennis and sophomores Tanner Campbell and Braden Zarbnisky.

Sigman made 20 appearances last year, including key stops in each game of a three-game sweep of Texas. Zarbnisky was pivotal as a starter and a reliever, making 12 appearances and four starts. Ennis appeared in eight games, while Campbell made five starts.

Freshmen Alek Manoah, Carter Camp and Isaiah Kearns have shown promise during the preseason.

"Beyond our starters, we're going to have to piece it together, try to find a fourth starter, someone who can finish the game at the end," Mazey said. "Alek Manoah has stepped up and looks like he could finish some games, Braden Zarbnisky has thrown really well, so he'll be in the mix somewhere. A couple of freshmen, including Carter Camp and Isaiah Kearns have thrown really well. We have options, but it's a little scary when guys haven't proven themselves and had success. You have to learn how to have success at this level."

The pitching staff is where the Mountaineers saw their biggest losses, headlined by Chad Donato, Blake Smith and Ross Vance.

Donato and Smith were drafted, while Vance signed a free agent contract. Donato was drafted in the 11th round by the Houston Astros, Smith was selected in the 29th round by the Los Angeles Angels and Vance signed with the St. Louis Cardinals organization.

Donato made 15 starts and led the team with a 3.27 earned run average, while Vance made 13 starts and had a team-high-tying seven wins. Smith, who made 25 appearances, had eight saves, second-most in program history.

West Virginia's 13 saves rank No. 2 in the WVU record books. Manoah and Zarbnisky have led the charge to earn the closing spot early in the season.

"Could be Alek Manoah, a big freshman from Florida," Mazey said. It could be Braden Zarbnisky, who had days where he showed a high-level breaking ball, a swing-and-a-miss breaking ball. You know at the back end you have to have somebody who can make batters swing and miss. The closer could be by committee early on until somebody wins it, but we have a couple of capable guys back there."

INFIELD

The Mountaineers return every starter on the infield. Despite featuring one senior and three sophomores, the foursome return experience, solid defense and offensive potential.

"We're very athletic in the infield," Mazey said "We have some options, with guys moving in and out. We feel really good about our team defensively. With Cole Austin, Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and Jackson Cramer, plus guys like Marques Inman, Alek Manoah, TJ Lake and Kevin Brophy, we have different options."

Jackson Cramer, one of two seniors on the 2017 roster, leads the infield.

Cramer played in all but two games at first base last season, leading the team with 45 RBI and a .535 slugging percentage, while finishing second with nine home runs, 60 hits, 14 doubles and 32 walks. He was third with a .300 batting average and 34 runs scored. He earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors and was a three-time Big 12 Player of the Week.

Cramer also had a 10-game hitting streak and opened the season reaching base in 50 consecutive games, 30 games coming in 2016 and 20 carrying over from 2015.

"Jackson had to be one of the hottest hitters in the nation the second half of last year," Mazey said. "I think a lot of it had to do with when that streak ended, nobody was asking him about it or talking about it and he just went out and started hitting. He could not have cared less if he got a hit or not and ended up getting a lot more because of it. If he just relaxes, goes out and plays, he's the guy in our lineup that the other teams look at him and say, 'wow is that guy still there?' Jackson has been in the middle of their lineup for three straight years so, he's got a chance to have a really good year for us if he just relaxes."

The rest of the starters on the infield are sophomores, but they do not lack experience.

At second base, Kyle Gray started 16 games as a freshman and had 35 starts in the outfield. He hit .270 with 47 hits, 22 RBI and showed his speed with a team-high 10 stolen bases.

Jimmy Galusky mans shortstop. The Arthurdale, West Virginia, native was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team and started 57 games at shortstop as a freshman. He hit .282 with 53 hits and 17 RBI and was second on the team with five game-winning hits.

"Jimmy is probably the best shortstop in the league," Mazey said. "He had the fewest errors of, I think, any shortstop in the Big 12 and ended up somewhere around .270-.280. If Jimmy could just get a little better offensively every year, by the time he leaves, he's got a chance to be as good as any shortstop that's played here."

Cole Austin is expected to man the hot corner. He made 39 starts as a freshman, 27 at second base and 12 at third. Austin had 32 hits in 41 games with four home runs, six doubles and seven stolen bases in eight attempts.

Austin was one of three players with at least 10 starts at third base. The list also features junior Kyle Davis and sophomore Ivan Gonzalez. Davis is expected to play primarily in left, and Gonzalez will take over the primary responsibilities behind the plate.

"We've tried a couple different things," Mazey said of the third base position. "Cole Austin has spent time over there and has really good hands and likes it over there, so that might be a spot for him. On days when Ivan doesn't catch, he can always go out there. He went out there last year, literally not having practiced there, and looked like Brooks Robinson on some days. We can juggle that spot a little bit more than the others."

With Cramer, Gray, Galusky and Austin, along with capable backups, the WVU infield has its sights set on a big year.

OUTFIELD

In the outfield, a pair of star-studded corner outfielders return, while a center fielder needs to be developed.

Right field is anchored by Darius Hill. He started all 58 games and earned Freshman All-America honors after leading the Mountaineers with 75 hits, 20 doubles and a .511 slugging percentage in 2016.

Kyle Davis is in left field. Also a Freshman All-American, in 2015, Davis led WVU with 10 home runs, 39 walks and 52 runs scored and hit .280 as a sophomore in 2016. Davis started 56 games last year, splitting time between third base, left field and designated hitter.

"Kyle has turned himself into a really good left fielder so he's going to stay out there and he's turned into a well-rounded player," Mazey said. "The last couple years it's been mostly offense. His defense was okay, but now, through his own work ethic and to his credit, he has rounded his game out pretty well."

In center field, Mazey has a couple of options. One is sophomore Zarbnisky, who started 14 games in the outfield last year, and the other is freshman Brandon White.

"Kyle Davis and Darius Hill are middle-of-the-lineup guys who have turned themselves into really good outfielders," Mazey said. "They're going to hopefully hold down the corners, and we have some options in center field. One is Braden Zarbnisky, who played there last year. Brandon White has really stepped up and shown that he can be a great defender out there. We have options and can play with some different lineups and get different guys in the game. It's just knowing which ones to put out there at the right times."

CATCHER

Catcher is a position where the Mountaineers lost a lot, but very well might gain just as much.

Ivan Gonzalez (who went by Ivan Vera last year), returns as a sophomore after a Freshman All-America campaign in 2016. He led the team with a .381 batting average and a .437 on-base percentage recorded 51 hits, 23 RBI and nine doubles.

Gonzalez came to WVU as a catcher and started eight games. He was a backup to junior Ray Guerrini, but his hot bat forced Mazey to put him in the lineup. That's where third base came in, a position Gonzalez hadn't played in years.

Gonzalez started the final 20 games of the year at third, allowing Guerrini to remain behind the plate. After Guerrini signed a free-agent contract with the Seattle Mariners organization last summer, Gonzalez went back to his natural position.

"Ivan has really caught and thrown well this spring," Mazey said. "He's swinging the bat well. He's won that job hands down, but Nick Denicola and Chase Illig, we need to find ways to get them in the game. They're freshmen backing him up. We just have to pick our spots to get them experience."
